

Astrology Reading for Sarah Jaffe

Born August 17, 1970 — Chicago, IL

Between: 8:30 AM & 11:15 AM

Core Energies – Consistent Across Both Times

Regardless of the time, Sarah's natal chart reveals a potent balance of fiery leadership, watery sensitivity, and earthy grounding.

Sun in Leo (24°)

Sarah was born under the Sun in Leo, the radiant lioness of the zodiac. This placement gives her an innate warmth, presence, and creative fire. She has a heart of gold and shines naturally when she's allowed to express herself authentically, lead with joy, or create something beautiful.

Leo Suns are born to illuminate others through courage, generosity, and childlike wonder. Sarah's soul mission involves inspiring others by being fully herself.

Moon in Pisces (2°)

Sarah's emotional nature is deeply attuned to the unseen world. The Pisces Moon makes her dreamy, empathic, and incredibly intuitive. She can feel the energies in a room before words are spoken. This Moon is poetic, spiritual, and creative—often connected to music, healing, or the mystical arts.

She may experience intense emotions and need periods of solitude to reset. Her gift is the ability to hold compassion in a world that often forgets softness.

Mercury in Virgo (21°)

Her mind is sharp, organized, and observant. Mercury in Virgo is the sacred analyst, discerning truth from noise. Sarah can excel in communication, editing, psychology, or anything that allows her to organize chaos into clarity.

Venus in Libra (9°)

Venus here gives her grace, charm, and an innate sense of harmony in love. Relationships are sacred to her, and she likely values beauty, fairness, and emotional reciprocity.

She is a lover of aesthetics, and likely has excellent taste in design, fashion, or art. Romantic at heart, she yearns for soulful partnership and balance.

Mars in Leo (19°)

Sarah's drive comes from passion and presence. Mars in Leo is bold, expressive, and loves to take center stage. She moves with confidence when she feels seen and respected.

The Difference Birth Time Makes

Let's explore the difference between being born at 8:30 AM and 11:15 AM.

If born at 8:30 AM (Ascendant likely Virgo)

Virgo Rising gives Sarah an air of humility, helpfulness, and quiet precision. She presents herself as grounded, thoughtful, and health-conscious. There's a strong healer archetype here—someone who refines, supports, and brings order to those around her.

Sun in the 12th House:

Her Leo light shines behind the scenes. This often indicates a private soul, who finds strength in solitude, dreams, and spirituality. It suggests karmic depth, and someone who has come to heal from lifetimes past through service and surrender. There may be a draw to mysticism, meditation, or working with the subconscious.

Moon in the 7th House:

She emotionally bonds through partnerships. Intimacy is incredibly important. Her heart is drawn to soul unions, and she may mirror others emotionally—so choosing aligned people is key.

This chart gives Sarah the archetype of the spiritual guide, healer, or intuitive, often working quietly behind the curtain, while carrying deep insight and wisdom.

If born at 11:15 AM (Ascendant likely Libra)

Libra Rising gives her grace, diplomacy, and aesthetic magnetism. She's likely seen as charming, artistic, and easy to talk to. Libra rising people are drawn to beauty and harmony, and often find themselves balancing the needs of others.

Sun in the 11th House:

Her Leo light shines in community. She's here to influence groups, lead with vision, and bring people together under shared values. This placement points toward collective leadership, especially in humanitarian, spiritual, or artistic realms.

Moon in the 6th House:

Emotionally, she finds security through daily routines, work, and service. She feels most at peace when she's organized, helpful, and living with purpose. Health, wellness, or healing practices could be emotionally fulfilling.

This chart points to Sarah as a community-centered leader, artist, or wellness guide—someone here to inspire the collective through practical, grounded spirituality.

Soul Contracts & Growth Paths

- Jupiter in Scorpio: Her path of expansion involves embracing the depths, shadows, and transformations of life. She grows through emotional intensity and may be a natural counselor or spiritual alchemist.
 - Saturn in Taurus: This is the soul lesson of stability, worthiness, and embodiment. Over time, she's learning to trust her value and cultivate abundance slowly, from within.
 - Uranus in Libra / Pluto in Virgo: She's part of a generation revolutionizing relationships (Uranus in Libra) and healing systems (Pluto in Virgo). She may be a pioneer in emotional or somatic healing.
-

Final Reflections on Sarah

Sarah, whether your soul chose the Virgo or Libra rising path, you are clearly a bridge between heart and healing, between the spiritual and the practical.

- If born at 8:30 AM, your energy moves inward, mystical, soft and sacred. You're a quiet but powerful lightworker, healing from the inside out.
- If born at 11:15 AM, you move outward—your Leo fire is more public, and your presence inspires others to gather, dream, and act.

What remains true either way is that you are here to bring beauty, warmth, and healing to this world, through both your creative expression and your compassionate heart.

Let me know if you have any questions

With love,

Jassy

Sacred Arts Guide & Astrologer